Embracing the communities of Cherbourg, Goomeri, Murgon, Proston and Wondai

Unity in diversity ... being one in Christ through Baptism!

Matthew 5: 17-37

The audience for Matthew's Gospel was a community of Jewish and Gentile people who had become Christians. Matthew is anxious to assure both groups that the Christian community is respectful of their traditions and that Jesus did not come to abolish the Law and the Prophets but to complete them.

The Gospel writer, Matthew, shows a respect for the old Law but he is also enthusiastic for the new vision that Jesus has brought to its interpretation. He shows Jesus as the true Messiah, the new Moses, who will fulfil God's promises to Israel. Today we hear Jesus confirming the old Law and adding a higher expectation about the way that Law is kept. This is about keeping the Law in thought as well as in action. It is not just about how we do this or that, it is more about why we are doing it. With the psalmist I pray: Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders of your law.

CARITAS AUSTRALIA PROJECT COMPASSION

Project Compassion Lenten Prayer

God of all love,
We remember that on the night before he died
Your son, Jesus, prayed
That his friends "may all be one"

Yet we see so much division in the world. War, conflict, violence and hatred must all distress you.

Millions of people suffer When they don't have peace and respect. They lack the necessities of life, food, water, health, education and security.

We pray that we may all Unite Against Poverty this Lent.
May our support for Project Compassion be a sign to ourselves and others, of our hope for a better world.

This Lent, we pray that our dedication
To prayer, fasting and almsgiving
Will help restore your vision of justice and peace.

Guided by the Holy Spirit,
We pray in Jesus' name.

Amen

Compassionate God

(Real life stories, collected by the Carmelite Sisters)

I am very sure that I am not the only one who has got God all wrong despite years as a Catholic, daily reading of the Bible, lots of sermons, and taking time out for prayer. I just can't help feeling that I don't measure up or can't get it right as I think I should. Dark voices tell me I'm wrong, wrong, wrong, and one day I will find out... from God himself.
Above all, God is watching me to see where I go wrong.

So when I read the following story, told by Basil Hume, former Archbishop of Westminster in London, I felt uplifted. The Archbishop relates how as a boy he was told about another little boy in a pantry full of apples. The little boy desperately wanted an apple but had been told by grownups that he must not take anything without permission. It seemed just commonsense to him to take an apple: he was hungry, there were lots of apples, nobody would see him,
and nobody would miss one apple.
But he was told there was one person who would see him – God, who sees everything and punishes you for wrongdoing.

The Archbishop told of being deeply affected by that story of a God who sees us when nobody else does, and who was always watching to see if there was anything we were doing wrong. Yes, I thought, that's my God.
But he went on to say that now so many years later, he had an idea that God would have said to the little boy, "Go on, take two". That's the kind of God I would like to have:
a compassionate God with a sense of humour. (Mary)
